Would You Mar the Beauty of Your Home Just to Save a Few Dollars?

THE interior woodwork for your home should be selected with the greatest of care. It is possible, of course, to save a few dollars by specifying ordinary millwork, but the beauty, comfort and value of your home will be decreased accordingly. It is false economy to select anything but the very best. Let us show you how Curtis has made it possible for you to have the best in design, craftsmanship and woods—at a final cost very little more than for ordinary woodwork.

Curtis Woodwork is made to endure. The designs are authentic in every detail and the woods and workmanship the best.

Regardless of what plan you choose, we can show you items of Curtis Woodwork that will add much to the value as well as the comfort of your home. There are wide varieties of entrances, doors, windows, moldings and trim, from which to make your selections, as well as numerous built-in items.

We will gladly give you the advantage of Curtis home suggestion—without obligation. The new booklet "Curtis Woodwork for the Home" is ready for you. Send for it today.

Lesson for July 19

THE GOSPEL IN LYSTRA

LESSON TEXT—Acts 14:1-28.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."—Matt. 5:10.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Heals a Lame Man.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul Stoned at Lystra.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Going Forward in the Face of Difficulties.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Tribulations and Triumphs of Missionaries.

I. Paul and Barnabas Preaching at Iconium (vv. 1-7).

Their experience here was similar to that at Antioch. They entered the Jewish synagogue and preached, causing a multitude of Jews and Gentiles to believe. The unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles to the most bitter opposition.

1. Their Manner of Preaching (v. 1).

This is suggested by the little word "so" in verse one. They so spake that a great multitude believed. They were truly witnesses. Only that which brings conviction of sin and induces decisions for Christ can be truly called preaching in the Biblical sense. It is not enough to merely bring the truth to the people. It must be brought in such a way that men and women will decide for Christ. This is also true of the Sunday school teacher.

2. Their Attitude Towards Opposition (vv. 2-5).

This is suggested by the word "therefore." Long time therefore they tarried. The opposition did not prevent their preaching, but incited them to continue preaching.

3. The Lord Accompanied Their Preaching With Miracles (v. 3).

Since the opposition was so fierce, the Lord granted special help which was needed.

4. The Effect of Their Preaching (v. 4).

The multitude of the city was divided. Where men faithfully preach the gospel, there will be division.

5. Paul and Barnabas Assaulted (vv. 5-7).

The Jews and the Gentiles united in this assault. Being apprised of their effort, they fled to Lystra and Derbe.

II. An Attempt to Worship Paul and Barnabas as Gods (vv. 8-18).

1. The Occasion (vv. 8-10).

It was the healing of the lame man God's gracious power shown in healing this lame man overwhelmed a new difficulty. That which ought to have been a help was turned into a hindrance. This was a notable miracle. The man was a confirmed cripple. He had never walked. On hearing Paul preach, faith was born in his heart (Rom. 10:17). When Paul perceived that he trusted Christ, he called with a loud voice that all could hear for the man to stand upright. The cure was instantaneous for he leaped up and walked (v. 10).

2. The Method (vv. 11-13).

Barnabas they called Jupiter and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker. The priest of Jupiter brought oxen and garlands ready to offer sacrifice unto these men (v. 13).

3. Their Efforts Frustrated (vv. 14-18).

This foolish act was providentially averted by the zeal of the apostles.

(1) They denied that they were divine beings, and declared that to worship beings with like passions to themselves was criminal.

(2) They did not call the people to turn away from these vain things unto the living God who made heaven and earth, and has left witness of Himself in that He has always done good, giving rain and fruitful seasons, and filling their hearts with gladness.

III. The Stoning of Paul (vv. 19-22).

Wicked Jews from Antioch and Iconium pursued Paul with relentless hate to this place where they stirred up the very people who were willing to worship them a little while before. This shows that outside worship can soon be turned into satanic hate. This hatred took form in stoning Paul and dragging him out of the city for dead. God raised him up, and with undaunted courage, he pressed on with his missionary duties, bearing the good tidings to the last.

IV. The Organization of Churches in the Field (vv. 23-28).

Evangelization with Paul did not mean a hasty and superficial preaching of the gospel, but the establishment of a permanent work. Elders were appointed in every church. The work of the missionary is not done until self-governing and self-propagating churches are established on the field.

Seeing Christ in Men

St. Vincent de Paul made it a rule of his life to be always looking for the Christ in every man he saw or met. When that is a master-thought in anyone, in that person all men see Christ.—Dr. R. F. Horton.

Our Destiny

We make our destiny by our thinking, and the only determinism in nature is furnished by the verdict of the mind. The course of history is the course of thought.—Harold Begbie.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE contains the Combination which Quickly Relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which assists in restoring the General Health.

We hope to push Byrd off the Mapp!

VERA

A "number of things" has transpired since my last letter; but still no rain. The situation is becoming serious and unless we have rain soon we can count on another failure of a corn crop, which will mean the price of corn will be beyond the reach of common mortals, gardens are drying up and starvation will soon be staring us in the face; but as one of your correspondents remarked "Why should we expect anything?" Scarcely anyone stops to think how, or by whom we are blessed with rain, crops and even existence. "The earth is full of violence" as it was "in the days of Noe" as "the time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation" is just before us we must not expect much till that is past; then comes the "time of refreshing" Acts 3—Matt 24.

The family of Mr. Burr Abbitt of Newport News, is summering at their country home here.

T. H. Kinney and family left for their home in Columbia, S. C., after spending a week with their parents here.

Mrs R. A. Steffans, who has been visiting her parents here since May, left for her home in Miami, Florida via Baltimore and boat, she reports a pleasant voyage.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Reynolds visited friends at Red House recently.

Percy Reynolds and sister Lorene, visited in Buckingham recently and on their return brought as their guest Miss Geneva Ayers of that county.

Messrs. Buster and Ben Megginson and Miss Elizabeth Coleman and Clarence Beale motored to Norfolk last week and report a grand time.

John Gunter was a Norfolk visitor last week.

Miss Laura Moss of Danville, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Jud Kinney, returned home Tuesday.

Robert Megginson, Misses Edna Megginson and Florence Grow visited friends in Lynchburg last week.

J. S. Kinney and family and their guest Miss Moss, spent Friday at Natural Bridge.

Henry Spradlin of Lynchburg, made a flying visit to friends here last week.

The Scopes trial which has just concluded in Tennessee only to be taken to a higher court and has created a "Tempest in a teapot" so to speak, could have been averted had the principals read and understood God's wonderful plan for the restitution of mankind, which is set forth in the 2nd chapter of the "Divine Plan of the Ages"—a most wonderful book and should be read by all who believe in the great ransom sacrifice.

The intelligence has just reached us of the death of William J. Bryan, one of the principals in this great drama of "monkey vs. man".

Revival services at New Hope church closed Friday night with a large addition to the church.

Misses Pearl Robertson and Vivian Clark, of Mecklenburg, were week-end guests of Miss Lorene Reynolds.

Messrs. Moss and Charlie Lewis and Percy Reynolds have returned from a trip to Richmond and Virginia Beach.

Misses Evelyn and Isabella O'Brien spent the week-end with home people here accompanied by their friend, Miss Beacher.

George and Watkins Abbitt are visiting relatives in Lynchburg this week.

The Billy Sunday Club of Evergreen will hold a service at New Hope the third Sunday in August at 11 a m.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Robertson and three sons, and Miss Baily, of Richmond, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Reynolds recently.

William Morgan, a highly respected colored man, died near here last Thursday.

The most of the farmers have threshed wheat and report a good yield, while the prospect for other crops at this time, is very poor.

Mrs Sam Megginson has with her the three children of her sister, Mrs. Williamson, who is ill in a Lynchburg hospital.

HIXBURG

Miss W. M. Bersch of this place passed away July 25th in the 85th year of her age, while on a visit to the home of J. W. Cawthon of Appomattox. She was a woman of high christian character and will be greatly missed in this community. She leaves one brother John Bersch of Buckingham, and two sisters Mesdames. Galliher of Charlotte Co., and McPhillips of this place. Services were conducted by her pastor Rev. Duling. We extend our sympathy to this family.

Alfred Davis and family of W. Virginia, are on a visit to Buckingham.

Quite a number from here went to Pamplin Tuesday morning to hear Senator Mapp speak.

This section of the county is dryer than we have seen it for over 40 years, no rain since the 4th Sunday in last May and our crops are suffering very much.

FOREST VIEW

Dry, dry, dry, how we wish we could have a good rain. Gardens and crops are drying up.

C. E. Martin after spending last week in Roanoke, left Saturday for Birmingham, Ala., to visit his sister, Mrs. W. L. Shield and take a position which is in readiness for him.

Mrs. N. D. Marshall spent several days with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Overton, at Brookneal. Little Myrtle Overton is spending her school vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Woolridge and children of Lynchburg, attended the burial of M. S. Nash.

Miss Etta Woolridge of Lynchburg, is visiting her grandfather T. J. Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Woolridge.

EVERGREEN

We will stop grumbling about dry weather and trust the Lord to send us rain when he thinks best.

Mrs. C. P. Farrar is visiting friends in Marion this week.

Miss Louise Evans, who has been visiting her aunt in Amherst, has returned to her home here.

Miss Madian Lee was the guest of her friend Miss Annie Morris, of Lynchburg Sunday.

The willing workers Bible class of Evergreen, of which Mrs. G. P. Farrar is president, served cream on her lawn Friday night and a neat sum was relaized.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Brickey and little daughter, of Roanoke were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Farrar Sunday.

Mr. Ernest Farrar, who has been visiting friends in Lynchburg, have returned home.

There will be a lawn party at the Presbyterian church Saturday, August 1st beginning at 6 p m.

Miss Ida Bell Evans is on the sick list.

Miss Kate Cheatham, of near Rustburg, is visiting her niece, Miss Lillie Cawthorn.

The Junior Missionary Society held their social at the home of Mrs. T. T. Evans Saturday afternoon. The 23 children enjoyed many games and after they were tired out they were served ice cream and cake.

Miss Margaret Pittman, of Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. O. P. Farrar.

Men and Money Make this Bank Secure.

THERE are two ways of measuring the strength and standing of a bank. In the first place money resources—capital and surplus—give it financial strength.

In the second place—and perhaps even more important—are men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
